

One end piece — two inlets (ICS axial + ECS 90°)

The opposite end is identical but mirrored, carrying the two outlets.

Rule: ICS port sits OUTBOARD of the potting (feeds the lumens); ECS port sits INBOARD of the potting (feeds the shell).
If the 90° branch opened outboard of the plug, the two circuits would short together.